RE: RICE Family Records

Dear Mr. Rice:

This letter is in reply to the phone call we received on October 20, 2003 and the letter that you sent to us on October 30, 2003. The information for the Rice family that was talked about over the phone was rather vague, but the letter showed much more detail. There could possible be more information but with our library being small and since we have very limited staff and genealogy section, our research time is very limited. The information that I have collected comes from various sources, which is listed on the top of each page.

Have you tried our new Internet web page? The site is www.carrollcolibrary.org. There are several areas in the reference section that might be of some help. The photo of the grave that I have sent came from that site. Two other places in Frankfort, Kentucky that might help you further with your research are:

Kentucky Historical Society
Old Capital Annex
Broadway Street
Frankfort, KY 40601

Kentucky Dept. for Libraries & Archives
Public Records Division
300 Coffee Tree Rd
Frankfort, KY 40601

One of the rolls of microfilm we have here are the will of Carroll County. In this index I did find a reference to the following:

RICE, DAVID
SONS- JAMES H
JOHN B
DAVID L
GRANDSON- DAVID R. O'NEIL
ALSO MENTIONS—ELIZABETH RINGO

I tried to pull this up, but was unsuccessful in finding this will. There are several rolls here. Also found in the Gallatin records information about
David Rice – son born 12/15/ 83
James and Nancy Rice son born 7-11-1854 named George Washington Griffith in Carroll County.
David Rice Born dead a son 6-1-1857
Susan Rice age 72 died Sept 4, 1854 Born North Carolina

I only wish I could have more time to get you this information but again I must stress that there are several things going on at the library which I must give equal attention to as well. I will keep all the records here at the library, so hopefully I can look again in the near future.

I hope this information is of some help to you and wish you good hunting!

Dear Sir

I'm doing genealogy on the Rice family that moved to Ghent in 1833. Do you have any material there about my family. I have sent a group sheet for you to look at. I will gladly pay for all copies of material that you can get for me.
Please let me know if you can help me.

PREFACE

Indexing of the 1830 federal census of Kentucky was started to complete another gap for researchers tracing their families westward. Census indexes or transcriptions for 1830 have been published for the states of Arkansas, Illinois, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio, and Tennessee. Only Alabama, Indiana, and Louisiana remain to complete the migration picture.

This second volume to the 1830 Kentucky census for the counties of Casey through Gallatin was copied from the National Archives microfilm rolls M19-34, M19-35, and M19-36.

Readers should be cautious when using this index. The old faded handwriting was diminished even more on microfilm. The interpretation of the handwriting at times caused agonizing decisions. The qualifications of a census taker did not include good penmanship or the ability to spell names.

The format of the index includes the head of household in the first column, followed by the county of residence and the census page number where the name was found. County abbreviations used in this volume are:

Cas	Casey	Est	Estill
Chr	Christian	Fay	Fayette
Clk	Clark	Fle	Fleming
Cly	Clay	Flo	Floyd
Cum	Cumberland	Fra	Franklin
Dav	Daviess	Gal	Gallatin
Edm	Edmonson

Other information not given in this index but available on the original census for each household includes:

1) Age statistics of household members,
2) Age statistics of slaves and free colored persons,
3) Age statistics of those who are deaf and dumb,
4) Number of blind persons, and
5) Number of aliens-foreigners not naturalized.

For 25¢ per head of household this additional information can be obtained by writing Heritage House, Rt. 1, Box 211, Thomson, Illinois 61285. Please include the head of household, county, and page number in your request with a stamped self-addressed envelope.
